

Master Class in Modern Languages

For some, learning a language is a lifelong pursuit and there is always new and interesting ways to develop proficiency in a second language. The Blended Learning Master Class is an on-going training programme for those who have already achieved a high level in their second language and wish to develop it further.

This programme is both challenging and enjoyable. It is tailored to meet the language requirements of participants using state of the art online technology together with highly focused classroom training from native speakers. In this way, progress is effective and fast.

Participants may choose to follow a highly specialised learning path at this level. For example, they may take a business language programme online and focus their classroom training to meet their professional requirements.

Participants on this course are also prepared to take the Cambridge BULATS which will provide them with an internationally recognised language standard. This is recognised by businesses across the world and can be used when looking for employment or promotion.

12 week programme, 2 hours per week in the classroom with access to over 2000 hours of online training which is tracked and supported by the tutor. (A minimum of 2½ hours of online training is recommended per week.)

Courses commence every three weeks
