

One Month Intensive Youth Programmes in Celtic Studies and English as a Second Language July/August 2010

Our Summer Youth Programmes introduce students to the rich tapestry of Irish culture and lifestyle while effectively developing their English language proficiency.

Irish history and archaeology will be brought to life through excursions and fields trips. Students will acquaint themselves with the finest of Irish literature and art in this most idyllic of cultural backdrops. Our leading edge ESL school will ensure that students enjoy the best language training available, progressing them to achieve their language goals.

Celtic Studies

Sligo boasts a proud Celtic heritage. Students learn the history, magic and mythology of our Celtic past before exploring the numerous landmarks of the region such as the burial site of the legendary Celtic Queen Maedbh which stands high above the town and county, providing the visitor with a breath-taking view of miles around.

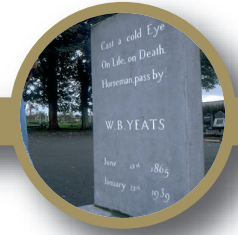

The wealth of Irish literature is world renowned and Sligo has played a proud part in creating this literary heritage. This magnificent region of Ireland has adopted the name of one of Ireland's most famous poets, William Butler Yeats, and is affectionately called Yeats County. Students will get to appreciate the beauty of his work surrounded by the landscape which inspired it.

Traditions of every nature are explored from dance to the native sports of Ireland as students enjoy the experience of learning English in Ireland.

Course of Study Includes

- Celtic myth and legend: Early Irish history
- Relics of the past: The Archaeological Heritage of Ireland
- Irish Culture and traditions: The Arts, music and lifestyles
- Modern Ireland: Political and Cultural change
