The student named above is an applicant for the Endicott College Sligo, Ireland Program indicated above.

Applicants should be highly motivated and emotionally mature in order to adapt to the challenge of a different social and cultural environment with minimal supervision. We would, therefore, appreciate your thoughtful and candid appraisal of this applicant. We are particularly interested in your assessment of their ability to handle stress, their flexibility, their level of responsibility, and their ability to live and work with people who are from cultural and/or economic backgrounds different from their own.

In comparison with other students you have known, please rate the applicant on the following:
